7 Plaintiff |

8 | EMERGENCY MOTION FOR

9 VS. | PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION /

10 | TEMPARORARY RESTAINING ORDER

11 Tako LLC, |

12 Defendant |

 14 |
 15 Comes now Plaintiff Parnell Colvin, and is requesting the court to grant his motion for an
 16 emergency injuction agaisnt the defendant Tako LLC, for the stated reasons in this motion. The court is aware
 17 that plaintiff Colvin suffered a life threatening case of pnueumnia covit-19 and was expected to not survive his
 18 battle with the deadly virus. While Colvin was on his death bed fighting for his life the defendant Tako LLC,
 19 filed a case in Las Vegas Justice Court Colvin received an email while recovering in the hospital and could not
 20 even care for himself he had two oxygen masks on and was hooked up to multiple machines including IV,
 21 heart monitor , highflow breathing machine , heart rate and oxygen machine ect 24 hours 7 days a week. Was
 22 also sedated from all the medications he was taken could not participate in the proceedings plaintiff Colvin, had
 23 requested hospital staff and his wife to contact the Las Vegas Justic Court to request to have the hearing
 24 rescheduled but the Las Vegas Justice Court said they would not and the hearing would still go on as scheduled.

26 Please see (Exhibit #1) letter from Spring Valley Hospital stating that plaintiff Colvin, could not attend
 27 court at this time. Once plaintiff Colvin had recieived word back from the Las Vegas Justice Court that the 28 hearing would still take place on January 20,2022. Plaintiff Colvin, believed his federal constitutional rights

1 to Due Process Clauses were being violated at this point plaintiff Colvin, was forced to check himself out the
2 hospital early and filed a notice of removal from the Las Vegas Justice Court to the Federal District Court.
3 Once plaintiff Colvin, filed the notice with the Federal Courts Clerks office on the same day filed the notice of
4 removal with the Las Vegas Justice Court Clerks Office the defendant and the Las Vegas Justice Court was
5 trying to keep the case for a hearing but plaintiff kept informing the court and the defendant that his due process
6 rights were being violated intentionally.

7
8 Eventually the case was removed from hearing and the Justice Court informed the defendant
9 Tako LLC, that since plaintiff had filed an notice of removal on federal laws that it needed to address the issues
10 in the Federal Court. However the defendant has not addressed this case in the Federal Court at all instead it
11 keeps refiling the same case back with the Justice Court instead of filing any reply with the Federal Court.
12 The defendant Tako LLC, has been told many times to address there issues with the Federal Court. In a earlier
13 attempt to get the case heard in the Justice Court again the Chief Judge Ms. Saragosa, stayed the case.
14 Please see (Exhibits #3-4) the court can see that this matter keeps getting put on docket for a hearing.
15

16 Plaintiff was told by Judge Saragosa, judicial assistant Maureen Lowe, on August 12,2022
17 via phone that plaintiff needed something from the Federal Court showing the case was still pending. Plaintiff
18 Colvin, contacted the chambers of The Honorable Cristina D. Silva, chambers left voicemail Jaye L. Beltran,
19 replied Colvin, had explained that the Las Vegas Justice Court needed something to show the case was still
20 pending in the Federal Court. Plaintiff Colvin, was emailed an docket sheet that shows the case is still pending
21 and faxed a copy of the docket sheet showing the case is still active in the Federal Court to the Justice Court.

23 Plaintiff was told and believed once he provided this document that the case would be removed
24 from the hearing set for August 25,2022. The Justice Court is now claiming it needs more proof the case is still
25 pending in the Federal Court it is very clear from the docket sheet that this case is active in the Federal Court.
26 The Justice Court Knows the said case is active in the Federal Court it has removed the case several times prior
27 because it has been shown that the case was legally removed from the state court January 18,2022 which is the 28 date plaintiff filed the notice of removal in the federal Court and also filed the notice in the Justice Court.

1 Plaintiff Colvin, believes the only way to stop the ongoing tactics by the defendant Tako LLC, is
2 for the Federal Court to issue an emergency injunction against the defendant. This will allow for the case to
3 proceed in the Federal Court without further delay and tactics by the defendant Tako LLC, has had every
4 opportunity to respond or address the case but have chosen to keep refiled in the Justice Court hoping to gain
5 an unfair advantage in the state court.

8 RELIEF REQUESTED

10 (1). Grant the motion for an emergency injunction with an order to remain in place until the 11 completion of case in the Federal Court.

12

13 (2). Sanction the defendant Tako LLC, for the continued tactics.

14

15 (3). Grant plaintiff any and all relief the court believes is appropriate.

16

17 (4). Please include the state case number in the order as well which is (21E014316).

18

20 Thanking the court for its time and consideration.

The Las Vegas Justice Court is in receipt of a document which Defendant filed as a "Notice" on July 21, 2021.

Examination of the document filed by Defendant reveals that it is a "Civil Cover Sheet" from a Federal District Court filing. Nevertheless, it appears that Defendant intends this document to serve as a notice given as part of Defendant's efforts to "remove" the instant case to the United States District Court.

Given that the United States District Court has assigned this "removed" case a case number, and that said case is at present pending in the United States District Court, this matter is stayed in the Las Vegas Justice Court until such time as the matter is remanded from the Federal Court. The hearing presently scheduled for September 7, 2021, is hereby vacated.

DATED this 26th day of August, 2021.
